Overview of Services

Holistic support for real estate.

Our approach

Casavia combines professional expertise with personal responsibility. Services are tailored to the property, objectives and actual requirements - as comprehensive support or as a clearly defined individual service.

01 Property management

Commercial, organisational and technical support, transparent communication and structured processes for your property.

02 Property brokerage

Personal support for sales and lettings - from positioning and property particulars to applicant management, completion and handover.

03 Flexible individual services

Preparation of property particulars, checklists and guides, accounting services for property managers, and individual brokerage or management modules.

04 Technology & sustainability

Practical assessment of technical matters and recommendations for meaningful improvements, energy efficiency and sustainable development.

Who we work for

For owners, tenants, prospective buyers and tenants, property management companies, estate agencies and other real estate businesses seeking reliable expertise or wishing to outsource individual tasks.
